Day 1 Toronto - Ottawa Tulip Festival

Departing from Toronto in the morning, head to the picturesque Saint Lawrence National Park, one of the great scenic spots in North America. Take a cruise on the Thousand Islands, admiring the private islands and summer resorts dotted along the Saint Lawrence River. Get a close look at the heart-shaped Island, listen to the poignant love story, and marvel at the world's shortest international bridge while enjoying the stunning scenery of the Thousand Islands.

Afterwards, we will visit the Canada's capital city, Ottawa, the famous annual Tulip Festival. Stroll along the Rideau Canal, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and explore the famous Dow's Lake Tulip Park, where thousands of tulips in full bloom transform Ottawa into a vibrant city garden, delighting visitors with their colors. The exhibition halls feature a variety of festive handicrafts, bustling with activity. Then, visit Canada's art pavilion—the National Gallery of Canada. Housed in a glass crystal building with a giant bronze spider as its symbol, it showcases exquisite artworks and paintings from Canada and around the world, leaving a lasting impression.

Day 2 Ottawa - Toronto

In the morning, visit the Canadian Museum of Nature. This museum houses over 14.6 million natural history specimens, showcasing everything from the vanished world of dinosaurs to modern birds, insects, reptiles, mammals, and plants. Visitors can explore fossils, lifelike models, and live animals, including both terrestrial and marine creatures, gaining a deeper understanding of our planet. Children can engage in fun experiments in the laboratory and explore the secrets of the ocean floor, fostering a strong interest in nature.

Afterwards, we will go to one of Canada's oldest markets, ByWard Market. Here, you can taste unique Canadian handmade pastries like Beaver Tails. Another recommendation is the "Obama Cookie" from the Moulin de Provence in Market Square. During President Obama's historic visit to Ottawa in 2009, he purchased a cookie, making it a local delicacy and symbolizing a new era in US-Canada relations.

In the afternoon, return to Toronto, concluding this colorful and unforgettable journey.
