Day 1 Toronto - Kingston - Ottawa - Montreal

Travel eastbound in the morning along the McDonald-Cartier Freeway and arrive at the first stop in Kingston; a city with an exciting history dating back more than 300 years. Enjoy a sightseeing tour of the City Hall, Queen's University, and the Sir John A. McDonald House. The next stop will be the Nation's Capital city, Ottawa-Hull, which was appointed by Queen Victoria in 1860. Impressive sights of the Rideau Canal, Rideau Hall, Prime Minister's residence, and residences of foreign ambassadors come to view through a winding picturesque uphill path. The city tour includes landmark visits to the Parliament Hill, Peace Tower, Centennial Flame, Confederation Square, Art Gallery, Central Bank of Canada, Royal Canadian Mint, Canadian Museum of History ($), and Canadian War Museum ($). The evening is concluded with the arrival in one of Canada's largest cities, Montreal. Feel free to experience nightlife in this sophisticated city after hotel check-in.

Day 2 Montreal – Maple Farm - Quebec

The morning starts with a guided tour of Montreal's major attractions which include the City Hall, Court House, Cartier Bridge, Chinatown, Notre Dame Basilica ($), and the once-walled old Montreal. Take in unparalleled city views from the top of St. Joseph Oratory* ($) and explore the five ecosystems of the Americas under one roof at the Montreal Biodome* ($) located at Olympic Park.

*NOTE: All dates open to the public are subject to change and can become unavailable without notice.

The afternoon begins with a seasonal* visit to an old-world sugar shack that is reminiscent of pioneer life back in the day. A traditional lunch ($) is prepared with fresh produce picked from local farms. After a full belly, the trip continues onward Old Quebec City. Enjoy a guided tour of Canada's only walled city, crowned by the turrets of the most photographed hotel in the world, Le Chateau Frontenac. Until the British victory in 1759, Old Quebec was the center of New France; today, it's a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Explore this historical city during free time at a leisurely pace, and experience the change in language and tradition.

Day 3 Quebec – Thousand Island - Toronto

Pierre La Port Bridge, one of the longest suspension bridges in Canada, will be taken to drive out of Quebec City in the morning. Board the scenic boat cruise ($) through the many islands of St. Lawrence Islands National Park and be amazed by the World's shortest international bridge that connects Canada to the United States. Feel the crisp, gentle breeze as the boat navigates past summer cottages in the middle of the lake and have the camera ready for capturing the beautiful landscape. The three-day vacation ends by returning back to Toronto in the evening. NOTE: Thousand Islands Helicopter Tour ($) is available if the weather permits.
