Day 1 Toronto Kingston Ottawa Montreal

The tour starts as the coach travels east along the McDonald-Cartier Freeway towards the first stop, Kingston. A small city rich with history, Kingston was the former Capital of Canada. See the famous Sir John A. McDonald's House, glittering limestone walls of City Hall, and the prestigious Queen's University in this lakeside city tour. After a brief rest stop, the journey east continues to the nation's current capital, Ottawa. There is much to explore in this bilingual city. Ottawa, which was appointed by Queen Victoria in 1860. Impressive sights of the Rideau Canal, Rideau Hall Prime Minister's residence, and residences of foreign ambassadors come to view through a winding picturesque uphill path. The city tour includes landmark to the Parliament Hill, Peace Tower, Centennial Flame, National Art Gallery, Canadian Royal Mint, Canadian History museum ($) Back onto the coach, the arrival in Montreal marks the end of Day 1. Guests are free to explore the "Little Paris" of North America after hotel check-ins.

Day 2 Montreal New Brunswick Fredericton

The morning begins with a seasonal* visit to an old-world sugar shack that is reminiscent of pioneer life back in the day. A traditional lunch ($) is prepared from local maple syrup farms. After a full belly, the trip continues onward to the Provincial Capital of New Brunswick, Fredericton. One of North America's oldest settlements, Fredericton straddles the broad Saint John River. Guests will tour the provincial legislative building and the City Hall in the afternoon and spend the night in this historic city.

Day 3 Fredericton Nova Scotia Peggy's Cove Halifax

The coach departs Fredericton in the morning towards the province of Nova Scotia and arrives at one of the most important seaside cities in the East Coast, Halifax. An exciting Harbour Cruise ($) takes guests for a panoramic view of the Atlantic seaside port and of Dartmouth, Halifax's twin city. Captivating views of the historical lighthouse, George Island, and miles of shorelines are paired with onboard descriptive annotations. Back on land, the city bus tour continues to Citadel Hill, where guests are embraced with a stunning landscape overlooking the waterfront. The Atlantic Maritime Museum ($) is next, followed by Peggy's Cove, where guests will spend the afternoon exploring the best of nature's creation. One of the most famous and photographed seaside villages in North America, this fishing village is perched atop spectacular granite rocks, once deposited by receding glaciers. The ruggedness of the scenery is charming in all weather conditions, each with its own mysterious allure. The night is spent in Halifax.

Day 4 Halifax Prince Edward Island New Brunswick Shediac Moncton

The Confederation Bridge (toll included) is the world's longest bridge which stretches for 12.9 kilometers connecting the two provinces over the Atlantic Ocean. Guests will see a spectacular ocean view as the coach travels across to the next destination, Prince Edward Island. The famous "Anne of Green Gables" series was filmed on this sensational little island. Guests will tour the picturesque PEI National Park, Cavendish Beach, and the Anne of Green Gables House. As the journey East continues, guests will see the world's largest lobster at Shediac. Day 4 concludes with the arrival in the second largest city in New Brunswick, Moncton, also known as the crossroad of the Canadian Maritime provinces. The night is spent in Moncton.

Day 5 Moncton Fundy Bay Magnetic Hill St. John's Fredericton

The morning tour begins with a visit to New Brunswick's Fundy Bay, one of the Marine Wonders of the World. Home to the highest tides and over 250 million years of natural history, guests can take pictures and attempt to walk on the ocean floor before tides rush back in. Up next are visits to the magical Magnetic Hill and the Reversing Falls where the whirlpool created by Fundy Bay's high tides causes a natural phenomenon in Saint John's River. Overlooking the Reversing Falls Rapids, it's a view not to be missed but not for the acrophobic! The night is spent in Fredericton.

Day 6 New Brunswick (Montmorency Falls) Quebec

As the coach travels west, guests will arrive at Quebec City. Enjoy a spectacular cable car ($) journey to the top of Montmorency Falls to visit breathtaking viewpoints and trails. 100ft taller than Niagara Falls and the 272-foot-high waterfall dominates the Parc de la Chute-Montmorency. The afternoon is greeted with a drive into Old Quebec City. Enjoy a guided tour of Canada's only walled city, crowned by the turrets of the most photographed hotel in the world, Le Chateau Frontenac. Until the British victory in 1759, Old Quebec was the center of New France; today, it's a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Explore this historical city during free time at a leisurely pace, and experience the change in language and tradition.

Day 7 Quebec Thousand Island Toronto

Pierre La Port Bridge, one of the longest suspension bridges in Canada, will be taken to drive out of Quebec City in the morning. Board the scenic boat cruise ($ark and be amazed by the World's shortest international bridge that connects Canada to the United States. Feel the crisp, gentle breeze as the boat navigates past summer cottages in the middle of the lake, and have the camera ready for capturing the beautiful landscape. Guests will arrive back to Toronto in the evening, and thus concludes this memorable 7-day mosaic journey of the Maritime Provinces.
